Recovery & Rehabilitation Program - The objective is to help women that are homeless and/or addicted to substances by providing safe housing & spiritual support. This helps them to become productive members of society. In 2023, 40 women were housed that would have been homeless otherwise. The average stay is 150 days. The average counseling & group hours per individual is 380 hours of rehabilitation treatment. We served 19,200 meals to those in the program over the year. We helped provide healthcare for 35 women through local medical partnerships. Dental care is provided through local community dental providers. We provided clothing for 30 women and 35 women received work therapy and job training to help learn a balanced and productive life in the workforce and to build trade skills. 12 women graduated the program throughout the year. The program provided 8 opportunities for community outreach to help the local homeless communities.
